International Christmas Market

It's Christmas all year round here! Shop our array of culinary ornaments.

Little Red Wagon

We have constructive eating plates & silverware designed with kids in mind. Eating doesn't have to be boring!

Midwest Leather & Fudge Factory

Made Here. By Us. For You. Over 20 different flavors of fudge! Family owned & operated for over 35 years.

Renate's Antique Gallery

Enjoy 10% off cooking, glass, & floral items over $20! Come browse in an 1860s home for your special decor!

The Noble Stone

Feast your eyes on a cornucopia of gemstones – Grape Agate, Apricot Agate, and Honey, Orange, or Strawberry Calcite, something for every apatite. Our Himalayan salt cutting boards & shot glasses are sure to be a conversation starter!

The Rusty Tractor

From sweet to savory, stop in & enjoy special goodies offered this weekend only! Thirsty? Find over 30 teas to choose from, iced or hot, & a place to sit to enjoy them. Open 9am-5pm.

Village Antiques & More

Stop in to the little shop on main that's bigger than you think! Take 20% off Country Home Creations food mixes.

Warped & Woven Mill Mercantile

Visit us at 794 48th Ave. We've got fun snacks to enjoy while exploring Amana: Pretzel Pete small batch pretzels, Dick Taylor Craft Chocolate, & Iowa made Fritz Toffee. Shop our Amana made placemats & table runners too! Sign up for the gift basket, drawing held at 3pm Saturday.

LODGING

Die Heimat Country Inn

Stay with us! By prearrangement, we'll set up an exclusive dinner in a Kalona Amish home (40 min. drive) Friday night. We'll have our rich & creamy house made chocolate truffles in your room & each morning we serve a delectable full hot breakfast.

Rawson's Bed & Breakfast

One of Homestead's original Communal Kitchens. Enjoy your stay with our in-room whirlpool tubs & a full breakfast served on fine china. Built in 1862, this beautifully renovated building served the community every meal until the Great Change in 1932.
