

Private Garden: 4118 V St., Homestead, IA 52236

This garden evolves with the seasons. Asiatic lilies, roses, and selected annuals along side a commercial vegetable garden in the summer & early fall. New England asters, mums, & annuals in the fall.

AJ's Copper Garden: 3146 Hwy 6 Trail, Homestead, IA 52236

A gorgeous garden for all seasons. Made of copper, these flowers & garden creatures will stay beautiful all year round regardless of the weather. A perfect addition to your home or garden.

Die Heimat Country Inn: 4434 V St, Homestead, IA 52236

Built in 1856, the original lodging place of the Colonies was a stage coach stop, & later, a communal kitchen. Today, a stay at the updated inn includes a home-cooked breakfast in keeping with the simple & traditional Amana feel. The flower gardens have been developed over the past 9 years with perennials, colorful annuals, & a cutting garden to supply dining tables with fresh bouquets all season long.

Hunt for the Hidden Gems

Find a rock with a gemstone painted on it and return it to the Visitors Center for a $10 Amana Colonies Gift Certificate.

One rock is hidden at each stop.

Limit one per person. Rocks will be hidden in plain sight. Do not damage private property. Only one rock per location. Rocks will only be available during the June 3rd event. Must return rock to the Visitors Center to receive your prize.

AMANA COLONIES

COLONIES IN Bloom

HUNT FOR THE HIDDEN GEMS

SATURDAY, JUNE 3RD 10 A.M. - 4 P.M.

Find the hidden painted stones in select locations. Explore shops &

Private Gardens
off the beaten path.

Ruedy House Garden: 1003 26th Ave., Middle Amana, IA 52307

The Ruedy House and Communal Kitchen Museum are a must-see for history buffs and gardening fans alike. See an smaller example of a kitchen garden similar to those in the communal era used to feed 30-40 people year-round.

Private Garden 1: 1412 G St., High Amana, IA 52203

Welcome to a modern Amana garden with an ever-growing showcase of perennials and annuals. Plant references are available for research. Flowers and colors in this garden change seasonally.

Private Garden 2: 1506 G St., High Amana, IA 52203

The garden is full of annuals & perennials, including irises, daylilies, roses, peonies, Asiatic & Oriental Lilies. Find a shade garden with hostas, astilbe & impatiens, & raised bed gardens.

High Amana Store: 1308 G St., High Amana, IA 52203

Museum and general store all in one unique stop. Established in 1857, the building has remained virtually unchanged both inside and out. Step back in time and peruse the shelves. You'll even find some classic Amana gardening must-haves.

Michelle Maring Miller Gallery: 611 F St., West Amana, IA 52203

Located in the former West Amana Church, this local artist uses watercolors "to record our national treasure, from the most beloved natural wonders to the houses left behind with just a hint of past lives". Just outside the gallery you'll find the Millers' garden blooming with inspiration.

Hunt for the Hidden Gems details on the back page.

Fern Hill Quilts & Gifts: 103 220th Trail, South Amana, IA 52334

A long-time staple for quilters everywhere, Fern Hill also boasts a wide selection of garden gear, antiques, jewelry, and more. Stop in for a slice of homemade pie or some chocolates.

Schanz Furniture & Refinishing: 2773 Hwy 6 Trail, South Amana, IA 52334

This family-owned and operated business was established in 1966. All the furniture here is lovingly made by hand. You'll also find handmade brooms and baskets for your next gardening project.